

Your LifeGroup Plan

LifeGroups

 LIFE.CHURCH

For people to follow you, you've got to know where you're going. Your LifeGroup Plan will become your roadmap to a successful LifeGroup. Make it yours, and get started right away. Feel free to reach out to your Community Leader if you need help getting pointed in the right direction.

My Vision for my LifeGroup is:

Need help filling in the blank space? That's okay. Your vision is God-inspired, needed at Life.Church, and vital to your LifeGroup! It's worth getting it right. Remember, LifeGroups are all about meaningful relationships, people growing, and communities changing. Use the questions below to uncover your vision. After you do, write a brief vision statement in the blank above.

How will your group utilize your specific gifts and resources?

What will relationships look like in my group?

How will people in my group become better versions of themselves?

How will the community look different because of my group?

When we get together, my LifeGroup will:

Below are the most common parts of a LifeGroup and some information to help you fill in the blank above. The format for your LifeGroup is up to you. Mix and match these parts to write a brief description of what you'll do when you get together.

■ Talk Together

All groups spend some time catching up with casual conversation.

■ Eat Together

Some groups enjoy coffee, a light snack, or even a meal when they get together.

■ Have Fun Together

Quite a few groups share an activity together like working out, riding motorcycles, yoga, or other hobbies.

■ Grow Together

All groups make time to spur on spiritual growth through intentional discussions. Pick and choose from the discussion resources below.

- We'll use life.church/talkitover to discuss the message each week.
- We'll read through YouVersion Bible Plans and discuss them together.
- We'll use the LifeGroup resources available at resources.life.church.

■ Serve Together

The strongest groups serve together at their campus and with local mission partners.

■ Pray Together

All groups share each other's needs and pray together.

If there are kids in my group, we'll:

If your LifeGroup includes young kids, you'll need a plan.

My LifeGroup will meet at a great place:

My LifeGroup will get together on these days at this time:

My LifeGroup won't be empty because I'm going to:

Here are five ideas to help you fill in the blank above—and your LifeGroup.

1. Invite people you already know. This is by far the best place to start.
2. Sign up to serve at the LifeGroups Wall at your campus and personally invite people.
3. Invite people with shared interests. People you serve with, work out with, pick up kids from LifeKids with, or share a hobby with.
4. List your LifeGroup at lifegroups.life.church, and respond quickly and personally to people who inquire.
5. Become a regular at a service time and invite the people you go to church with.

I'm going to own my growth. Here's my development plan:

Here are some ideas to help you fill in the blank above. But you've got to own it. You'll grow most when you get into the game and begin to lead your LifeGroup. As you encounter challenges and opportunities, we want you to have access to the resources you need. Below are some of those resources.

- Our five development tools at www.go2.lc/development.
- A steady supply of leader tips, plans, and growth resources at www.leaders.life.church/lifegroups.
- Commit to read Scripture daily.
- Plan to find a mentor by a set date.

I need to follow up with my Community Leader about:

Hey, you've got this.

LifeGroups are the glue of Life.Church, and they don't happen without people like you who boldly step up to open their hearts, homes, and schedules to people around them. We believe in you!

Trust God from the bottom of your heart; don't try to figure out everything on your own. Listen for God's voice in everything you do, everywhere you go; he's the one who will keep you on track. Proverbs 3:5-6 MSG
