

YOU'VE HEARD IT SAID

LifeGroups

Key things you heard

- Reading Scripture changes us—especially when we read it in community.
- The more we read God's Word, the more we have a hard time ignoring injustice.
- Principles from Scripture impact more than we realize. In fact, using some of those principles in farming—letting the land rest—can result in twice the results (see www.go2.lc/conservationfarming).
- Scripture isn't just something you read; it's something you live.

Pray: God, thank You for giving us Your Word and for revealing Your character through it. Help me read Scripture with new eyes and a fresh perspective today and every day. And help me not just read it but truly live it out day by day. In Jesus' name, amen.

Tweetable Moments

Scripture impacts communities because it impacts individuals. It's impossible to read God's Word and walk away unchanged.

The more we read about who God is, the more God reveals Himself to us.

Say What?

Questions for conversation

Icebreaker: What was your first experience with the Bible?

- Like Jason Fileta, have you ever doubted Scripture or gone periods of time without reading it? If so, what happened?
- Share about a time when the Bible influenced you in a meaningful way.
- Describe your current experience with the Bible. How often do you read it? Do you have any helpful tips?
- Has reading Scripture ever caused you to fight injustice or stick up for what's right? If so, what happened? If not, how might Scripture change the way you see and serve others?
- Read Acts 2:42-47. What are some ways you can read Scripture with others?
