

YOU'VE HEARD IT SAID

LifeGroups

Key things you heard

- Asking how to be a good neighbor isn't a new question. Jesus talked about it in Luke 10:25-37.
- Being a good neighbor starts with recognizing that what you have to give is enough, and it might be valuable to someone else.
- But being a good neighbor also means recognizing that you have a need for someone else. And that vulnerability might open the door to a relationship you never expected.
- Want to find those relationships? Be willing to take a small step of faith.

Pray: God, thank You for all the people You have put around me. Open my eyes to see my neighbors, and give me the courage to start relationships with them. Give me the wisdom to know how to be a better neighbor. In Jesus' name, amen.

Tweetable Moments

- Wondering how to be a good neighbor? Be observant, then be obedient.
- Being a good neighbor looks like sharing your life with someone.

Say What?

Questions for conversation

Icebreaker: What was your childhood neighborhood like?

- What was your biggest takeaway from this episode?
- How would you define being a good neighbor?
- What are some things that keep you from interacting with your neighbors?
- How would you describe your relationships with your neighbors right now? What can you do to start or improve those relationships?
- Read Luke 10:25-37. What are some things you notice about being a good neighbor from this passage?
- What are some ways you can be a better neighbor to those around you?

Now Go Do It

Resources and next steps

Challenge: Take a step to start a relationship with a neighbor this week. Then, talk about what happens with a friend, your family, or your LifeGroup.

- If you're not yet in a LifeGroup, find or start one here: www.life.church/lifegroups
- Watch Pastor Craig's How to Neighbor message series: www.go2.lc/neighborieseries
- Start the You've Heard It Said Season 3 Bible Plan: www.go2.lc/meaningful
- Watch the How to Neighbor LifeGroup content: www.go2.lc/neighbor