

YOU'VE HEARD IT SAID

LifeGroups

Key things you heard

- To be fully present with others, we need to be fully present with God.
- To love others well, we need to be HIP.
 - Humble yourself before God and others.
 - Be interested and engaged with others.
 - Be present with those around you.
- Developing a habit of quick obedience to God will help us be intentional with those around us.
- Slow down in conversations to create time to pray it before you say it.

Pray: God, thank You for being so present with us. We want to be humble, interested, and present with those around us. Thank You for the gift and joy that comes from relationships. In Jesus' name, amen.

Tweetable Moments

- When you are humble, you're really loving because it's not about you anymore.
- Ultimately, our humility and our love comes from God.

Say What? Questions for conversation

Icebreaker: What's your favorite slang word?

- What from the episode impacted you most and why?
- On a scale of 1-10, how easy is it for you to stay engaged and present in conversations?
- Share about a time when someone was fully present with you. What was that experience like? How did it make you feel?
- Which part of HIP (humble, interested, present) do you need to grow in the most? How can you start doing that today?
- Read John 14:21. What does this verse show you about the importance of obedience? How can you develop a habit of quick obedience?
- What are some ways you could regularly evaluate your motives?
- In what ways could you be more fully present with God and others?

Now Go Do It Resources and next steps

Challenge: Be sensitive to God's promptings this week. It may be to reach out to a friend or to serve someone around you. Then, practice the habit of quick obedience.
