My Plan

Once you've determined your vision—your why for meeting—you'll want to spend time planning what you'll do when your LifeGroup meets.

Here are a few ways that you might spend your time together when you meet:

- ◆ Talk Together
All groups spend some time catching up with casual conversation.
- ◆ Eat Together
Some groups enjoy coffee, a light snack, or even a meal when they get together.
- ◆ Have Fun Together
Quite a few groups share an activity together, like working out, riding motorcycles, playing games, or other hobbies.
- ◆ Grow Together
All groups make time to grow spiritually together through intentional discussions. Connect with your Coach to learn more about the resources at your campus. You can learn more about free resources available to you in the training video, Getting Your LifeGroup Started: www.go2.lc/GetStarted
- ◆ Serve Together
The strongest groups serve together at their campus or in their communities.
- ◆ Pray Together
All groups share each other's needs and pray together.

Once you've read through these options and talked with your Coach, write down what your LifeGroup will do when you're together.

Meeting Logistics

Once you've figured out what you'll do when you meet, you'll want to determine the logistics of when and where you'll meet. You've probably already had these conversations with your Coach, but it's helpful to write these logistics down, too.

Think through the following questions, and then fill in the blanks with the corresponding information below.

- ◆ Where will my LifeGroup meet? Will it always be at the same place, or will it change?
- ◆ How often will my LifeGroup meet (weekly, bi-weekly, monthly)? Which day of the week will we meet, and at what time?
- ◆ How will I communicate these details to the people in my LifeGroup?

| My LifeGroup will meet at _____ every _____ on _____ at _____
(location) (week, other week, monthly) (day of the week)
(time)

Growing My LifeGroup

As you're getting started, there will be a few ways you can grow your LifeGroup. Here are some ideas:

- ◆ Invite people you already know. Ask your friends, coworkers, or family members.
- ◆ Spend time at the Info Wall on the weekends. This is where people come before and after service if they want to learn more about the church, including ways to get involved, like joining a LifeGroup.
- ◆ Invite people with shared interests. Think about the people you serve with, work out with, or share a hobby with.
- ◆ Share about your LifeGroup on social media. Explain what your LifeGroup is about, and invite your friends to join you the next time you meet.

If your LifeGroup is on the Info Wall at church, it's also likely registered in the LifeGroups Search Tool. This is where people can find your LifeGroup online. When they reach out, you'll receive an interest form in your email. Make sure you respond and invite these individuals to your LifeGroup, too. If you're not sure if your LifeGroup is registered online, connect with your Coach.

You're Just Getting Started

LifeGroups are one of the main ways people find community and get plugged into church, and they don't happen without people like you, who boldly step forward and open their hearts, homes, and schedules to people around them. We believe in you, and we're praying with you as you get started.
