Have fun doing activity with your small group

You'll Need

Per Kid	Nothing
Per Group	1 Lip-shaped eraser

After Activity

Kids Keep	Nothing
You Keep	Lip-shaped eraser (save to reuse)

To Do

Say: If you tell a lot of lies, other people won't know when they can trust you. I'll show you what I'm talking about with this game.

1. Leader holds the lip-shaped eraser and says one thing that's true about them and one thing that's not true. (Make something up, but try to keep it somewhat believable!)
2. Kids guess which thing isn't true.
3. Leader tells everyone which thing is made up.
4. Leader passes the eraser to another kid who would like a turn to share a truth and a lie.
5. Repeat, choosing a new kid to hold the eraser and share one truth and one made-up thing until each kid in your group gets a turn.

Say: When we told one truth and one lie, no one was sure what to believe. But, even if we tell a lot of lies, we can ask God to help us be honest, instead. Then people will learn they can trust us again!

6. Collect the eraser and save for reuse.

Small Group Talk & Prayer

≈ 10 min

Get kids talking • Pray with your small group • Build relationships

Review the Point: Tell the truth. Be honest in all you say and do.

Review the Verse: Locate Bibles in the room, look up the verse together, and talk about what's the same and what's different if it's in a different translation.

Proverbs 12:22 NLT The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in those who tell the truth.

- What do you think people can learn from this verse?
- Choose a Question to Get Your Group Talking
- What do you think is so bad about lying?
 - What do you think can tempt people to lie sometimes?
 - Once you tell lies, what do you think can help people trust you again?
 - Who can you talk to when you need help being honest?

Wrap Up

- Pray together.
- Do the small group activity again or play a game like Charades or Duck, Duck, Goose.

Leader Tip

Make prayer time special and personal. Ask kids what they want to talk to God about and let them lead through praying for one another if they'd like!
